B.A. in Arts Administration

The show goes on, as it must, because someone puts it on. You have an artistic eye and a practical, organized side that together can bring the performing, visual, and cultural arts to life. Hone your skills, gain experience, and join the dynamic and diverse art world.

What You'll Study

As an arts administration major, you'll explore fine art and graphic design, art history, speech and writing, and the business behind the art scene. The arts management program is a blend of art, history, and business.

How You'll Learn More

Our on-campus gallery, theaters, and studios give you access to the latest technology and an inspiring group of student and professional artists. Through an internship in dance, music, or theater, you can experience what it's like to work in various artistic organizations. The vibrant local arts scene exposes you to exceptional opportunities to visit, volunteer, and intern at the NSU Art Museum Fort Lauderdale, Art Basel, and Miami's Wynwood art district.

Unique Opportunities

- home for the arts: on-campus gallery, studios, pottery equipment, scene shop, screen-printing lab, Mac design lab
- grant: apply for the talent-based grant for qualifying performing and visual arts students
- internships: gain hands-on experience with local galleries, arts organizations, or museums
- student symposium and film festival: present your research, analysis, or creative work; awards presented
- performance ensembles: explore your musical, theatrical, and dance talents in these groups
