

CAHSS - Department of Conflict Resolution Studies

QRGP Certificate Frequency Chart

Program Overview

NSU’s College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences’ (CAHSS) Graduate Certificate Program in Qualitative Research consists of six three-credit hour online courses (five required and one elective) designed to prepare academics, professional research consultants, and graduate students to understand a variety of qualitative research approaches and to conduct qualitative research studies. Students may enroll full or part time. Students may also take the courses in a non-credit option.

FALL	WINTER	SUMMER
QRGP/MACS 6300: Foundations of Qualitative Research (online)	QRGP/MACS 6301: Qualitative Data Collection (online)	QRGP/MACS 6305: Qualitative Research Design (online)
QRGP/MACS 6302: Qualitative Data Analysis I (online)	QRGP/MACS 6303: Qualitative Data Analysis II (online)	Elective

Certificate Course Electives

- QRGP 6304 Appraising Qualitative Research
- QRGP 6306 Conducting Qualitative Research I
- QRGP 6307 Conducting Qualitative Research II
- QRGP 6308 Writing Qualitative Research
- QRGP 6309 Arts-Based Qualitative Research
- QRGP 6310 Autoethnography

DCRS current Students or Alumni Admissions Option and TOC

DCAR PhD registered students transfer in:
 CARD 7110: Qualitative Research I for QRGP 6300
 CARD 7120: Qualitative Research II for QRGP 6301
 CARD 7900: Dissertation for QRGP 6305;

Only Register for:
 QRGP 6302, QRGP 6303, and one QRGP elective.