

Registration Tips for DCRS Graduate Students

Registration is completed online on a first come, first served basis.
Register early, courses fill up quickly.

Steps to register

1. Log into SharkLink <http://sharklink.nova.edu> to accept the Student Enrollment Agreement (SEA) and if applicable check your financial aid status.
2. Register for courses following step-by-step instructions offered by the NSU Student Help Desk: <https://www.nova.edu/help/webstar/student/register.html>

Degree Audit

Stay on top of your degree requirements, academic progress, and registration plans.
Relevant documents such as Course List, Degree Plans, Course Schedules, are available on the DCRS Student Resources Page <https://cahss.nova.edu/departments/crs/resources>

- Plan ahead: Note that some courses are only offered during specific terms and/or in specific format (residentially, hybrid, online). Plan accordingly. Consult section Degree Plans and Course List on the DCRS Student Resources Page.
- For online courses: be sure to review E-live times (online meeting times) listed on schedule to avoid conflicts.

Financial Aid

If you are a financial aid recipient be sure you meet enrollment requirements.
Consult NSU's Financial Aid information page: <https://www.nova.edu/financialaid>

International Students

If you are an international student be sure you meet requirements to maintain your status.
Carefully review important information on the web page of NSU's Office of International Students and Scholars: <https://www.nova.edu/internationalaffairs/students>

Holds

If you have a hold on your account, take the appropriate actions early to have the hold lifted.
A hold will prevent you from registering.
For information on holds, use SharkLink <http://sharklink.nova.edu>
