

Winter 2020 Residential Institute Presentation Synopsis

Friday, February 7

Dissertation Boot Camp

9:00 am - 12:00 pm and 1:30 - 4:30 pm

These two sessions will cover all you need to know for a successful dissertation process. It is never too early to start thinking about your dissertation. Doctor Bastidas will lead the morning session, which will include the following topics: the logistics of the process, the paperwork required, picking your dissertation committee, the steps of the process, the use of Turn-it-in, and post-dissertation activities. The afternoon session will be a Q&A session with Dr. Muvingi. In this bootcamp, you will make connections with people that will save you from insanity. The sessions are open to ALL students. DON'T Miss It!

Please register for go to training Boot Camp with Dr. Bastidas at:

<https://attendee.gototraining.com/r/3093685276676706561>

Please register for go to training Boot Camp with Dr. Muvingi at:

<https://attendee.gototraining.com/r/2721771070514130433>

Presenters: Dr. Bastidas & Dr. Muvingi

Saturday, February 8

NSU Community Fest

12:00 - 4:00 pm

Come and join us for our 17th annual community Fest around the Gold Circle. Community Fest celebrates and connects NSU students, employees, and their families through a carnival-like atmosphere. See circulating flyer.

CAHSS SGA Event

5:00 - 8:00 pm

Come and join us for our winter social in the company of our CAHSS colleagues and faculty. There will be delicious dinner, music and dancing. See circulating flyer.

Sunday, February 9

Library Session

12:15-12:45 pm & 12:45-1:15 pm

"Organizing Sources for Literature Review" - Presenters: Librarians Stacy Allsop & Melissa Johnson

"Endnote: How to Collect and Organize References" Library, 2nd floor, Lab A

3:00 - 7:00 pm

Monday, February 10

Conflict Resolution Careers in Organizational/Community Conflict

5:00 - 6:30pm

Several DCRS alumni who are engaged in conflict related careers in organizational/community conflicts will participate in a panel discussion on what they do, how they feel they are making a difference, how their DCRS experience helped them get hired and succeed in their job, and recommendations for current students and the program. A "can't miss event."

Please register for go to training Career Development Panel, Dr. Katz:

<https://attendee.gototraining.com/r/4149004233593714689>

Presenter: Co-ordinated, moderated and sponsored by Prof. Neil Katz and SGA President, Jen Lawer

Library Session (Drop-in between these hours)

9:00 - 11:30 am

"Endnote: How to Collect and Organize References" (Software is free for NSU students!)

Location: Alvin Sherman Library, 2nd floor, Lab A

Presenters: Librarians Stacy Allsop & Melissa Johnson

Fall 2019 Residential Institute Presentation Synopsis

Tuesday, February 11

Library Session (Drop-in between these hours)

9:00 - 11:30 am

“Endnote: How to Collect and Organize References” (Software is free for NSU students!)

Location: Alvin Sherman Library, 2nd floor, Lab A

Presenters: Librarians Stacy Allsop & Melissa Johnson

Still Have Some Free Time and Looking for Something to Do?

Visit the Student Welcome Center located in the Horvitz Building

Monday-Friday 8:30 am - 5:00 pm

Career Development & Services Office: If you are interested in discussing your career goals and/or how to get to them, feel free to walk in to meet with a counselor

Get your NSU ID

Monday-Friday 8:30 am - 6:00 pm

The card office is located in the Horvitz Building

Library Services

The Alvin Sherman Library is open every day of Residential Institute and provides study spaces, computers, printing, and assistance.

<https://sherman.library.nova.edu/sites/ask-a-librarian/>

Librarians meet with individuals and groups to provide instruction on navigating the library, accessing full text, searching databases, developing search strategies, and using EndNote. A special extended schedule is available to CAHSS students during Residential Institute.

Learn more via the RI Library Guide: <https://nsufl.libguides.com/ri>

Writing and Communication Center

The writing & communication center is located in the Alvin Sherman library, 4th floor. Visit their webpage at: <https://www.nova.edu/wcc/>