

Dean Yang Alumni Changing Lives Scholarship

The Dean Yang Alumni Changing Lives Scholarship shall support a graduate student enrolled in a degree program in the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. To qualify, a student must be in good academic standing enrolled in a graduate degree program, at the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. Qualified students who meet the following award criteria are encouraged to apply for this scholarship.

Student's Qualifications

Applicant must:

- Be a CAHSS student enrolled in a graduate degree program
- Be in good academic standing as defined by the program office
- Submit essay (approximately 500 words) on one of two topics: How will your NSU degree change your life and/or the lives of others? OR What impact will the Changing Lives Scholarship have upon you?

Interested students must complete this application and satisfy all NSU and CAHSS requirements. Applicants may be asked to demonstrate a commitment to building an inclusive learning community in order to be considered for awards, at the discretion of the Dean. The completed application will be reviewed by a scholarship committee who will also select the candidate. Financial award of scholarship will be applied to the subsequent term.
